As such, Applicants should ensure they read the Terms and Conditions very carefully before submitting their application for admission to LT123.

2. Application to the Course and Confirmation of Acceptance

- To apply for a place on a Course, Applicants should make a formal request by writing to us at info@LT123.co.uk or complete the online registration form on the LT123 Website here.

Tuition fees and payment

- Our payment methods are i) payment via an established global payment platform provider, where most major credit/debit cards are recognised or ii) bank transfer (BACS/SWIFT).
- If bank charges are incurred by LT123 on such payments, where these charges have been incurred through no fault of LT123, these will be re-invoiced to the Applicant’s account, so that LT123 receives the payment due in full.
- Any variation to standard payment terms can only be made by prior agreement in writing with the LT123 Director.
- Discounts: If more than one discount should apply to a course only one such discount may be selected. Discount agreements are subject to availability and may be withdrawn or changed at any time without notice.

- In cases of payment of any of the fees owed by the Applicant / Course Participant being overdue, LT123 reserves the right to suspend or cancel tuition and to charge interest on the outstanding balance. Interest will be charged on any outstanding fees at the rate of 2.5% above the base rate of HSBC Bank per month or part thereof from the due date until payment.
- LT123 reserves the right to withhold any academic results or certificates, if any fees are still owed by the Course Participant at the end of their Course.

4. Cancellation charges

- Following enrolment and payment, LT123 will issue you with access to the Learning Platform and at this point no cancellation fees will be permitted.

- A contracted Course Participant may defer to a later Course if he or she has been prevented by serious external events from starting the Course. An external event includes (without limitation) serious illness or injury of the contracted Course Participant or of a close member of her/his family.
- Anyone needing to defer in unavoidable circumstances must ensure that any request to do so is accompanied by a full explanation of the reasons for the request, is presented in writing and reaches the LT123 Director in the UK before the Course start date. The request should also include details of the preferred new start date for the same Course type or alternative Course start date.
- All deferrals are subject to the availability of the requested chosen new Course start date at the time LT123 receives the request to defer.
- Any further deferral requests will be considered by LT123 on a case-by-case basis and acceptance of a deferral request will be at LT123’s sole discretion.

- LT123 shall have no liability for failure or delay to supply the Course and/or any service contemplated by these Terms and Conditions caused by unforeseen factors or circumstances which are outside of LT123's reasonable control. Such factors or circumstances include, but are not limited to, staff illness; severe weather; fire; restrictions imposed by government or public authorities; epidemic; pandemic; strikes or other forms of industrial action or a terrorist attack or the threat of a terrorist attack.
